

Order Today

ORANGES, 12 for . . . 25c
GRAPE FRUIT 4 for . . . 25c
MIXED NUTS 17c
TANGERINES 30c
BANANAS 25c
MALAGA GRAPES . . . 25c

SOMERS

MR. H. T. MILLER'S
School for Dancing
28 Oak Street.
REOPENS WEDNESDAY, Jan. 1, 1913
Classes at 4:15 and 8:15 p. m.

You Will Find Excellent Christmas Suggestions

for the men who insist on all the little niceties of dress at THE TOGGERY SHOP, 291 Main Street.

Full Dress Accessories

to the minutest detail. HOUSE COATS and BATH ROBES, WAISTCOATS.

Bedtime Clothing of every description.

Shirts fit to come from a Custom Maker, and an endless line of everything for men at

The Toggery Shop

291 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

Florida

CUBA-AUGUSTA SOUTH

Atlantic Coast Line

The Standard Railroad of the South

SEA-LAND ROUTE

Through Train Daily with All-Steel Electric Lighted Pullmans Dining Cars.

And Effective January 6th, the "NEW YORK AND FLORIDA SPECIAL" (26th Season) will be in operation daily.

For illustrated literature and all information address L. H. JOHNSON, N. E. Agent, 244 Washington Street, Boston.

THE BROADWAY STORE

New Year's Presents

New Year Post Cards

The Broadway Store,

Opposite the Y. M. C. A.

MISS M. C. ADLES

Hair, Scalp and Face Specialist

Baldness Follows Neglect

The person whose hair and scalp are cared for systematically show their wisdom. If you have been careless in this respect, make a resolution to do better for the New Year! Miss Adles' scalp tonics are just what you need.

Everything for the Hair, Face and Scalp.

306 Main St., next to Chelsea Bank. Telephone 502-4.

Albi's Bowling Alley

Open from 9 a. m. until 12 p. m.

Bowling 10c per string.

Daily prize given also.

M. ALDI & CO., Props.

WHEN YOU WANT A HOT WATER BOTTLE

to meet an emergency, you want a dependable one. One that will not leak at a time when it is worth many times its cost.

There is only one way to avoid a thing of this kind and that is, to buy one of our GUARANTEED Hot Water Bottles.

The quality of rubber that enters into their composition must be the best because of the demands we make of the manufacturers. We have a standard and they must come up to that.

LEROU, The Progressive Druggist

OPP. CHELSEA BANK.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Tuesday, Dec. 31, 1912.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

Dec. 31st is St. Sylvester's day in the church calendar.

A number of the college boys and girls left town Monday.

Rural delivery carriers will have a holiday New Year's day.

St. Patrick's parish school opens Thursday for the winter term.

Morris Katzman of the Chesterfield road, East Lyme, has enlisted in the army.

The mailmen are resting up after two of the busiest weeks in their experience.

W. B. Cox of Salmon Falls, N. H., has been in Montville trying to hire mill help.

It is expected that navigation on the Connecticut river will cease about January 1.

Sunrise prayer meetings are to be held by some of the churches on New Year's day.

It is expected by many that the coming legislature will revise the present automobile laws.

During Monday's rainstorm merchants were busy taking inventory for later clearance sales.

Wednesday the feast of the circumcision will be observed by special services in the Episcopal churches.

The big poultry show in New York, with its 8,000 exhibits, will attract a number of fanciers from this vicinity.

School children think it hard luck to have vacation yet no opportunity to use either Christmas skates or sleds.

Connecticut members of the Turn Verein are already preparing for the national tournament, to be held in Denver in June.

Bank depositors and bank employees will be busy today, in advance of a legal holiday and the first of the year and quarter.

Miss Martha A. Ward was in charge at the Otis library Sunday afternoon. There were forty-nine visitors to the reading room.

A new schedule became effective on the Boston and Worcester division of the Norwich and Western Traction company Saturday.

At Scotland, this (Tuesday) evening the marriage of Miss Florence Martin, daughter of Mrs. Davis Martin and Raymond J. Paux of Newark, N. J., took place.

The first shipment of the newly issued Panama Exposition stamps has arrived in Connecticut and will be used in the regular stamp sale commencing on Jan. 1.

It is claimed that extra mileage for state legislators is to be gained by the simple process of amending the statute governing this payment by the state to its lawmakers.

Several from Norwich are making plans to be in Hartford Wednesday, Jan. 2, when Simon E. Baldwin will be inaugurated governor of Connecticut for the second time.

The campaign of the Connecticut Woman Suffrage association extending over the next few weeks, will start January 13 and Wallingford has been selected as the opening stand.

This is the last day for duck hunting and Norwich sportsmen say there are hundreds of ducks in Poquechuick cove, but they are very wary and it is hard to get a shot at them.

The time-honored custom of New Year's calls has been given up in general, in Norwich, although a very few continue to convey New Year good wishes in person on the holiday.

The biggest hotel in the world, the new 24-story McAlpin with its more than 1,500 rooms, which was opened in New York Sunday, is equipped with Thermos products "Made in Norwich."

There are to be nine new officers at Fort Wright and four at Fort Terry. Three new second lieutenants arrived at Fort Wright Sunday and two captains will reach there today (Tuesday).

E. Hart Geer of Hadlyme and Frank Deane of Portland, fish and game commissioners, met in Groton at the home of Dr. F. W. Hewes, president of the board, Saturday, for the transaction of business.

Victor Johnson of Oakdale has secured 38 muskrats and 2 mink. Walter Potter of Unadilla, a trapper, secured seven skunks, and Ed Edwards of Elmertown has captured 16 skunks so far this season.

This state has the largest number of miles of road in proportion to its area of any state in the union. The total number of miles including trunk lines, highways between towns and auxiliary lines, totals up 14,969 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Greenman of Westerly entertained at their home Thursday evening for Roscoe C. A. Beckwith, who is soon to leave Westerly. Among those present was Superintendent E. O. Rodder of Norwich.

One of the speakers Sunday evening at the Shepard memorial service in the Episcopal church, Clinton, attended by Miss Helen M. Welch, of Westerly, was Rev. Percy H. Wiley, of Essex, formerly of Norwich, who spoke of Rev. Mr. Shepard's career as a well-loved teacher.

AT THE DAVIS THEATER.

Vaudeville and Photo-plays.

For the first time of the old year the Davis theater has a strong programme opening the week and the acts received by parade at Monday's performance. Sandrine Brothers have an act which shows their strength and agility in a convincing manner, and The Minstrel Four is one of the big attractions of the season in the way of catch songs and witty jokes. The photo-plays are of high class. The Altar of Doom being a film of exceptional interest.

Has a Local Interest.

Of interest here is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Madeline H. Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Allen, of South Orange, N. J., to W. A. Slater, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Slater, Jr., of Washington, formerly of Norwich. Miss Allen is one of the season's debutantes and is a sister of Mrs. George Fox-body, the well known society woman of New York. Mr. Slater is a student at Harvard.

Will See the Old Year Out.

At the Trinity M. E. church this evening there is to be a watch night service commencing at 9 o'clock and lasting into the New Year. At 10 p. m. there will be a social hour at which light refreshments will be served. The concluding service will be an old-fashioned "Love Feast" and experience meeting.

Adlai Stevenson Killed Girl.

Bloomington, Ill., Dec. 29.—Adlai Stevenson, grandson of former Vice President Stevenson, accidentally shot and killed Miss Ruth Metwin, 16 years old, in the Stevenson home here today after a brief illness.

Death of German Secretary.

Stuttgart, Germany, Dec. 28.—Alfred Von Kintelen-Waechter, secretary of foreign affairs of the German empire, died suddenly at his home here today after a brief illness.

Parcels Post Delivery.

William J. Wallace, Jr., at present a substitute carrier, is to make the parcels post deliveries in this city with a horse and carriage when the new department is put into action at the local postoffice on Wednesday. There will be two deliveries daily at the start, but just what schedule will be maintained has not yet been determined.

Paul Shepard Sick in New York.

A telegram was received at police headquarters Monday night from the detective bureau of New York city asking the Norwich police to notify friends of Paul Shepard, of 99 Orchard street, that he is sick at the Hudson street hospital in New York city. The police were unable to locate anyone who knew him here.

Y. M. C. A. Extension Work.

At the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon at a meeting of the New London County Y. M. C. A. committee Secretary E. T. Bates will be present and the work of the extension of the Y. M. C. A. work into the smaller places of the sanitarium will be taken up.

Death of German Secretary.

Stuttgart, Germany, Dec. 28.—Alfred Von Kintelen-Waechter, secretary of foreign affairs of the German empire, died suddenly at his home here today after a brief illness.

PERSONAL.

Miss Caroline Slack has returned to Myrtle from a visit to friends in Norwich.

Arthur Newton of Ashland, Mass., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Annie Newton, of Unadilla.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rose have returned to Myrtle from a short stay with relatives in Ledyard.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Latimer of Orange, N. J., are holiday guests at the Palmer homestead, Montville.

Mortimer Eldred of the class of 1915 Sheffield Scientific school, is passing a few days at his home in this city.

Byron Allen of Southington was called to Norwich Saturday to the home of his father, James Allen, who has lung fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilbert of Danbury spent the week end with the former's mother, Mrs. Francis Gilbert, of Palmerston.

Mr. Albert W. Rogers, who spent the week at the home of his brother, Charles R. Carley, of Norwich, has returned to New London.

L. Hart Walden of the Norwich Free Academy faculty is spending the vacation in Scotland with his parents, Deacon and Mrs. Palmer Walden.

Mrs. William H. McChesney and son Charles will arrive from Hartford today to make their home with Mrs. Charles McChesney of School street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hanley and son, Thomas, Jr., have returned to Norwich after spending the holidays with Mrs. Hanley's mother, Mrs. Angelo Zerbani, of Westerly.

Miss Anna Coughlin of Albany, N. Y., and Miss Margaret L. Coughlin of Providence, R. I., spent Christmas at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Coughlin, of Lebanon.

WEDDING.

Guid-Hopkins.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hopkins, of Plainfield, Mass., Mr. Hopkins and Samuel David Guid of Medford, Mass., were united in marriage by Rev. James Higgins of Packardville, N. H., on Monday, Dec. 24th.

The bride was handsomely attired in white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. The wedding march from Lohengrin played by Miss Guid, sister of the groom, was the first music performed under an arch of evergreen and holly.

The double ring service was used. Master Ralph Hopkins, nephew of the bride, gave the bride away. The bride was escorted by her brother, Mr. John Guid, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

The dining room was decorated in red and green cut flowers. Delightful refreshments were served. The young couple received many handsome gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Guid departed amidst a shower of rice and best wishes. Appropriate lines were sent the bride by her uncle, Rev. John Troland.

Guests were present from New York, Bristol, R. I., Williamstown, Boston and Medford.

Aubrey-McNamees.

Thomas J. Aubrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Aubrey, of No. 224 Mount Pleasant street, this city, and Miss Irene K. McNamee were united in marriage at St. Francis church, New Haven, Monday morning.

The groom is a graduate of Yale university in 1911. The bride is a sister of the bride, and is a graduate of the same university.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey will reside in New Haven, where Mr. Aubrey is employed as advertising manager for Charles W. Hoyt.

FUNERAL.

Charles Webster Hill.

Monday night the funeral of Charles Webster Hill was held from No. 29 Division street, and the attendance was large. Many handsome floral forms showed the kindly remembrance in which he was held by his relatives and friends.

Rev. Peter C. Wright, pastor of the Central Baptist church officiated at the services and commended the life of Mr. Hill. The hearse was driven by Arthur D. Lathrop, Gilbert L. Hewitt, George Kampf and Hubbard D. Avery.

Burial was in the family plot in Woodland, at the residence of Mr. Wright. Undertaker Gager had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Harry O. Bishop.

The funeral of Harry O. Bishop was held from the parlors of Robert H. Hyles in New London Monday noon, and the services were conducted by Rev. Mr. French of New Haven. The hearse was driven by Mr. H. H. Peck, both of Norwich. Dr. Peck of New London and Louis Gates of Hartford.

The remains arrived in this city at 3:45 o'clock and burial was in the Yantic cemetery. A committal service was held at the grave during which Miss Mary Brown of New London sang "Nearer My God to Thee." Mr. French and Allen had charge of the funeral.

Weaver Now a Left Hander.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Buck Weaver, the Chicago American league star, has stopped, while playing in the Pacific coast winter league, has changed himself from a right to a left hand batter.

Reckless and wild in conduct, Weaver said he had accomplished the change and figured that it increased his hitting value by at least 25 per cent.

Weaver says it took him two months to make the change. He took up the idea on the suggestion of Gleason and Cullinan.

Zbyszko Throws De Rouen.

New Britain, Conn., Dec. 29.—Zbyszko, the Polish wrestler, defeated De Rouen, a Frenchman, in two falls before a large crowd tonight at the Lyceum. The Polish wrestler got his first fall in 14 minutes and 29 seconds and the second in 5 minutes and 3 seconds.

In the preliminary bout, Alec Swanson of Naugatuck defeated Sam Mitchell of Hartford in two falls.

Parcels Post Delivery.

William J. Wallace, Jr., at present a substitute carrier, is to make the parcels post deliveries in this city with a horse and carriage when the new department is put into action at the local postoffice on Wednesday. There will be two deliveries daily at the start, but just what schedule will be maintained has not yet been determined.

Paul Shepard Sick in New York.

A telegram was received at police headquarters Monday night from the detective bureau of New York city asking the Norwich police to notify friends of Paul Shepard, of 99 Orchard street, that he is sick at the Hudson street hospital in New York city. The police were unable to locate anyone who knew him here.

Y. M. C. A. Extension Work.

At the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon at a meeting of the New London County Y. M. C. A. committee Secretary E. T. Bates will be present and the work of the extension of the Y. M. C. A. work into the smaller places of the sanitarium will be taken up.

Death of German Secretary.

Stuttgart, Germany, Dec. 28.—Alfred Von Kintelen-Waechter, secretary of foreign affairs of the German empire, died suddenly at his home here today after a brief illness.

IN COURT TODAY FOR DISEASED MEAT

Hartz Brothers of This City Had the Beef in Their Possession

Sunday and will appear in City Court This Morning by Order of Health Officer Lewis—Montville Farmer Also in the Case.

In the city court this morning Hartz Brothers, Frank and Samuel G., who conduct a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday. The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.

The Montville farmer, who slaughtered the cow, is also to be arraigned, although it may not be possible to get him here this morning, for his part in the same case.

As a result of the investigation that was made on Sunday by Health Officer Lewis, the diseased meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers. The meat was found in the possession of the Hartz Brothers, who conducted a market on North Thames street in this city, will be called to account for their connection with the matter of the bringing of diseased meat into this city on Sunday.